

May 22, 1939.

Mr. John Borican,
272 Manhattan Ave.,
New York City.

Dear Mr. Borican:

I am so sorry I never seem to be in the office when you call. I am, of course, very busy these days.

I am enclosing a check to pay for expenses you incurred making the trip to Newark to open the Negro National League Baseball Season for 1939. Please accept my sincere thanks for your very gracious gesture. I assure you I greatly appreciate your co-operation.

Please keep in touch with me. I would like to follow your program in sports, and your chosen career of art. I wish you the best of luck. In addition to luck you will have to take the best of care of yourself.

Try and come see The Eagles sometime. They have looked extremely good so far.

Again accept my thanks and good wishes.

Sincerely,

EM:CCJ